

120th Day Hooray!!!

We've counted up to this special day since the start of school and we are excited that it is almost here! As part of our celebration, your child is to make a 120th Day Creation out of 120 objects. Be as creative and imaginative as you can. Your child may display 120 like objects (all the same) or 12 groups of 10 different objects.

Although this is a student project, parents may assist as needed. Your 120th Day Creation may be displayed in any way you choose, but your child must be able to hold it by themselves, so not too big!

Here Are a Few Ideas to Get You Thinking...

1. Your name created with 120 stickers
2. A fish created with 120 crackers
3. A house built with 120 blocks
4. A clay snake with 120 color beads on its back
5. A 120 bead necklace

* TRY TO THINK OF YOUR OWN IDEA! ****

WE WILL SHARE AND WRITE ABOUT OUR CREATIONS IN CLASS. PLEASE DO NOT SEND YOUR PROJECT IN BEFORE THE DUE DATE. WE ARE A BIT LIMITED ON CLASSROOM SPACE. THANKS!

HAPPY CREATING!

120th Day Hooray!!!

All things 120 come in this student created book! Print, collage and staple (left side) all of the pages together and let your class get to work! We work on this book throughout the entire week of the 120th Day. It is a class favorite!

How many words can you make with the letters in the words "One Hundred"? Make as many words as you can, then record them on the lines. Both color (for coloring) and black and white templates (for printing) are included. Store in individual bags or envelopes.

Some word ideas-- eye, fly, two, tea, ten, hot, ice, tone, now, not, not, how, ride, nose, noon, war, we, wet, went, left, town, teen, teary

Print out and along the dashed lines, and you've got yourself a set of 4 different 120 Grid Puzzles (for printing on colored paper) and black and white templates (for printing on colored paper) are included. Store in individual bags and let your class get to work! We work on these numbers and create their own puzzles. Store them in bags and let their classmates solve them!

Get into the 120th Day of School spirit by dressing up like you're 100 years old! Send the family letter, pull up your dress up! Have students transform and write about what they believe their lives will be like when they are 120 years old.
