How do we do it?

Our Sharing Story

We have never done the traditional "sharing" in our class. Instead, we use our sharing time to practice and develop beginning public speaking skills for our students. This gives them opportunities to become comfortable when speaking in front of their peers. In addition to speaking, the pages are also a great way to practice writing components throughout the year.

We have been using these pages in our class as a weekly homework writing assignment. These pages can also easily be used as a classroom writing activity. We have found that...

Directions on how to Use the Program

1. I dictate their sentence to their parents. Parents may write the sentence on their own paper. The Rule of 5 on our Sharing Pages, is 5 colors in their picture, as well as...
