

January

February

July

August

March

April

September

October

May

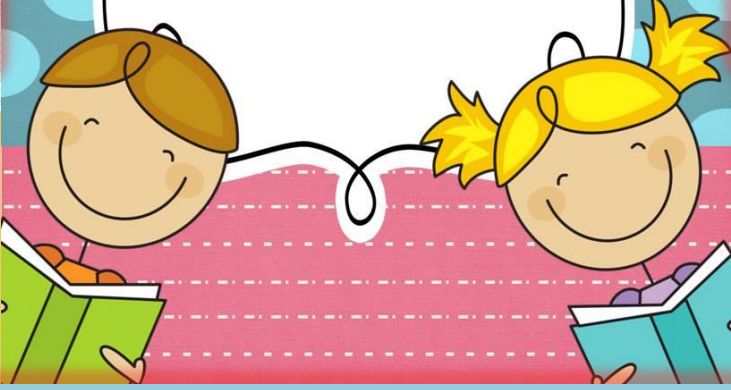

September

November

June

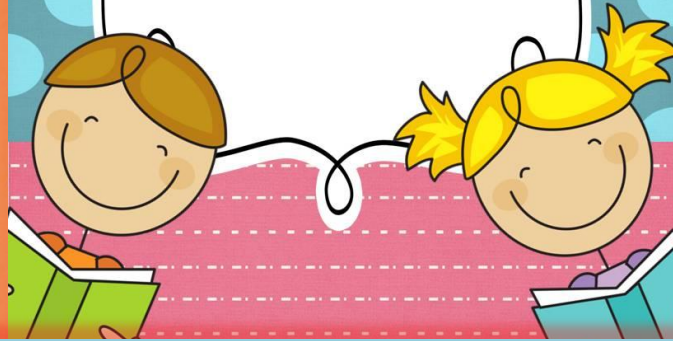

December

Fluency Building Bookmarks

Differentiated Fluency Building Bookmarks
for the Entire Year!
Read to 3 Read to 5 Read to 8

Comprehension Cards

36 Generic Comprehension Cards
Plus,
Monthly Comprehension Cards

January

- Why is this a good story for January?
- Which character would you most like to play in the snow with?
- Who is the main character in this story?
- What signs of winter can you find in the story?
- What part of the story would you like to be in?
- Which character would you most like to give a Valentine to?
- Which character do you love the most?

February

- Why is this a good story for March?
- Which character would you be lucky to meet?
- Which of the characters in this story do you like best?
- What signs of spring can you find in the story?
- Why would you read this story to a Leprechaun?
- Why is this a good story for April?
- Which character would you like to go on an egg hunt with?
- What signs of spring can you find in the story?
- Is this a good story for a rainy day?

March

- Why is this a good story for May?
- Would your Mom like this story?
- What signs of summer can you find in the story?
- How do you think the characters feel about each other?
- Would your Dad like this story?
- How do you think the characters feel about each other?

April

- Why is this a good story for June?
- Would you like to go on a vacation?
- What signs of summer can you find in the story?
- How do you think the characters feel about each other?
- Who are the characters?
- What happens in the beginning?
- When did the characters meet?
- When does the story take place?
- What happens in the middle?
- What happens in the end?
- Who does the main character remind you of?
- Who should read this after you?
- When is the main character introduced?

July

- Why is this a good story for July?
- How do the characters show cooperation?
- What time of day does the story take place?
- What problem was solved in a good way?
- How would you describe the main character?
- Why is this a good story for August?
- What do you think the characters would like to do on a hot summer day?
- Why do you think there was a problem in the story?
- If you could add a character to the story, who would it be?

August

- Why is this a good story for September?
- What signs of school can you find in this story?
- What is something you could learn from this story?
- How do you think the characters feel about school?
- Were there any scary parts of this story?
- Are there any treats in this story?
- Which character would you most like to go trick-or-treating with?

September

- Why is this a good story for November?
- What signs of thankfulness can you find in this story?
- Which character would you like to give a gift to?
- How do the characters show giving?
- Which character would you most like to give a present to?
- How do the characters celebrate the holidays?

October

- Why is this a good story for December?
- What signs of winter can you find in this story?
- Would this make a good story to read aloud at the dinner table?
- Which character would you most like to give a present to?
- How do the characters celebrate the holidays?
- Who? What? When? Where? Why? How?
- Differentiated Comprehension Quick Checks
- Create Your Own Comprehension Cards!